EASY RECIPES

Blueberry Walnut Trail Mix

Ingredients:

- 1/2 cup dried blueberries
- 1/2 cup toasted coconut flakes
- 1 cup raw walnut halves
- 1/2 cup dark or milk chocolate
- 1/2 cup toasted salted cashews

Directions:

- Mix all the ingredients together in a bowl. Store at room temperature in an airtight container.
- For hikes, I love reusable rezip bags for storage. They're lightweight, durable, and have a great seal so your trail mix won't spill all over your backpack.

EASY RECIPES

Shrimp & Veggie Stir-Fry

Ingredients:

- 5 lbs raw shrimp (peeled & deveined)
- 1 bell pepper
- 1 large carrot
- 1 broccoli crown
- 3 oz snow peas
- 1/2 small red onion
- 2 Tbsp cooking oil
- 18 oz packet of pre-cooked rice
- 17 oz packet of stir-fry simmer sauce
- Cilantro for garnish

Directions:

- Prep the veggies: Cut the bell pepper into strips. Chop the carrots and onion into bite-sized pieces. Break the broccoli up into individual florets. Leave the snow peas whole.
- Heat a cast-iron pan over medium heat. Add about 1 Tbsp of oil to the pan followed by the shrimp. Cook the shrimp on both sides until it's completely cooked, about 5 minutes. Once fully cooked, remove the shrimp from the pan and set it aside.
- In the same pan that just cooked the shrimp, add a little more oil followed by the chopped carrots, red onion, and broccoli. Mix frequently for about 5 minutes. Add in the rest of the veggies and cook for another 5-8 minutes until the broccoli and carrots are tender.
- Once the veggies are done, add the shrimp back into the pan along with the simmer sauce and the cooked rice. Turn the heat down to a medium-low and mix everything together. Cook for a minute or two, until the rice is warm. Sprinkle with some fresh cilantro and serve hot!
